God's Word Today

RELYING ON GOD'S LOVE

Imagine being among those who heard Jesus address the Pharisees and scribes in the encounter we hear in today's Gospel: "What man among you having a hundred sheep and losing one of them would not leave the ninety-nine in the desert and go after the lost one until he finds it?" Would you leave ninety-nine in the desert in order to find one lost sheep? In the parable, Jesus is showing us the depths of God's love, the illogical, incredible love God has for each of us. Moses counted on this loving mercy as he spoke for the wandering people; Saint Paul acknowledges his reliance on it in his letter to Timothy. God desires to draw you close, seeking you when you are lost. Are you ready to be drawn into God's loving embrace? Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

CONFIAR EN EL AMOR DE DIOS

Imagina que estás entre quienes escucharon a Jesús hablarle a los fariseos y escribas en el encuentro que oímos en el Evangelio de hoy: "¿qué hombre entre ustedes que tiene cien ovejas y pierde una y deja a las noventa y nueve en el desierto para ir a buscar a la perdida hasta encontrarla?" ¿Tú dejarías las noventa y nueve en el desierto para ir a encontrar una oveja perdida? En la parábola, Jesús nos está mostrando lo profundo que es el amor de Dios, el amor ilógico e increíble que Dios tiene para cada uno de nosotros. Moisés contó con esta misericordia amorosa cuando habló por el pueblo errante; san Pablo reconoce su confianza en esa misericordia en su carta a Timoteo. Dios desea acercarse a ti, buscándote cuando estás perdido. ¿Estás preparado para ser recibido por el abrazo amoroso de Dios? Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

To the People of God in the Diocese of Brownsville,

Together with Catholic Dioceses throughout the world, the Diocese of Brownsville recently concluded its synodal consultative sessions in the parishes and missions, schools, and other centers of pastoral activity within the Diocese. I am grateful for the generous work and missionary zeal of the pastors, delegates, and many volunteers that organized and participated in the listening sessions. Your voices and input have helped illuminate our discernment and have contributed to how we, as a diocesan church, can better hear the voice of the Holy Spirit in the prayerful voices of our people. Our parishes, missions, schools, religious communities, and apostolic movements reported consulting over 8,600 people since we began this journey in October 2021.

After the local parish and mission consultations, teams of delegates prepared syntheses of parish and mission church consultations, and these in turn were the basis for a diocesan synthesis of the consultative voices who participated. It is with great joy, therefore, that I share this diocesan synthesis report of the diocesan consultations with the whole diocese. The synthesis has been prepared in both English and Spanish. The diocesan synthesis is a tangible sign and fruit of our synodal journey of prayer, listening, and dialoguing together. This document, together with the syntheses generated in local parishes, can aid in our local discernment moving forward.

The many occasions for listening within the diocese during the consultative phase have served as moments of encounter with the Lord and with one another in a spirit of respect and attentiveness. This, in turn, has initiated important conversations on many levels of the local Church. What comes through most clearly is the great desire of our people to work together to heal what wounds have afflicted us, and to become more effective signs of the presence of Christ in our communities. There is also a great desire to work together, despite our differences, and with the help of the Holy Spirit, for a renewed vigor in the evangelizing and teaching mission that Christ Himself has entrusted to us.

This synodal journey is not concluded, rather it now enters a new phase. An ongoing challenge for us is to continue efforts to reach out to those who were not reached during our first synodal consultations. There are still many who feel distant or exiled from the Church; we must continue to invite their participation. The stronger we are in our communion with one another and our communion with the Lord Jesus, the stronger we are in the grace God gives us to fulfill the mission he gives us.

The next phase of the synodal work will involve a discernment about the priorities that have emerged from the local synod, and then how best to practically address them. Some hopes and needs expressed in the local consultations can be addressed by individuals and families, while others can be most effectively addressed at the parish, deanery, or diocesan level of the Church. Deciding about these matters will require prayer and continued consultation. Our response to these needs and hopes will rely on the Lord and his generosity and on our common efforts to work together in parishes, deaneries, and on the diocesan level to address the challenges our times present to us.

With the publication of this diocesan report, I invite parishes and missions, schools and centers of pastoral activity, clergy, laity and religious to continue to pray and dialogue about how to address our local challenges, and to reflect, and discern about the future we chart together as the Church of the Rio Grande Valley. I urge that our reflections together always be accompanied by frequent meditation on the Scriptures, particularly the Gospels, so that our hearts may be animated with the desires that animate the heart of Christ. And I ask everyone to pray that our way forward as a People of God in the Rio Grande Valley will be always marked by a deep love and fidelity to the Lord Jesus Himself.

In the coming months, clergy and diocesan leaders, and consultative groups will gather to discern the priorities from the synthesis of consultations. On October 15, 2022, synod delegates will gather with myself and others to consider the response to and implementation of the diocesan synodal action. Parishes and missions are invited to engage in a similar discernment about how they will respond to their local findings and implement a pastoral way forward.

Let us continue to journey together towards deeper communion, fuller participation, and greater zeal in fulfilling our mission in our part of the world.

In Christ the Lord,

Most Rev. Daniel E. Flores, S.T.D.
Bishop of Brownsville

QUEEN OF PEACE NORMS

As you know, all Catholics have the obligation to attend Mass. Please do not come if you think it is unsafe for you.

- If you are sick, please stay home. This is for EVERYONE'S safety.
 - When you come to Mass, please wear a mask and observe social distancing both inside and outside the church.
 - If you prefer to receive Holy Communion on the tongue, please try to be last in line and go to the designated kneelers.
- ⇒ Como saben, todos los católicos tienen la obligación de asistir a Misa. Por favor, no vengán si creen que no es seguro para ustedes. La Reina de la Paz planea lo siguiente:
- Si está enfermo, quédese en casa. Esto es por la seguridad de TODOS.
 - Si viene a Misa, use una máscara y observe el distanciamiento social tanto dentro como fuera de la iglesia.
 - Si prefiere recibir la Sagrada Comunión en la lengua, intente ser el último en la fila y diríjase a los reclinatorios designados.

The ushers have available masks, if you forget yours.

- ♦ Los ujieres tienen mascarillas disponibles, por si olvidadas la tuya.
