God's Word Today

GOD'S LAW

Scripture has always held God's law to be the path to human happiness. In today's first reading, Ezra the priest reads the scroll of the law to the people returned from exile. They weep—then are joyful. Israel's relationship with God had always been defined by how they kept and lived God's law. The author of Psalm 96 likewise praises the law of God as the source of wisdom, joy and enlightenment, purity and justice.

In his advice to the bickering Corinthians, Paul points out that, just as God has made all parts of a human body essential for the health of the whole, living as "Christ's body" requires that each member be recognized as necessary for the good of all. Finally, in Luke's Gospel Jesus claims that the Spirit is sending him to relieve human suffering. Like Ezra, he is reading from a scroll, proclaiming God's "law" of mercy to those in need.

LA LEY DE DIOS

La Escritura siempre ha sostenido que la ley de Dios es el camino para la felicidad humana. En la primera lectura, el sacerdote Esdras lee el rollo de la ley al pueblo que regresó del exilio. El pueblo llora y luego se alegra. La relación de Israel con Dios siempre se ha definido por cómo guardaba y vivía la ley de Dios. El autor del salmo 96 también alaba la ley de Dios como el origen de la sabiduría, alegría e iluminación, pureza y justicia.

En su consejo con los corintios discutidores, Pablo señala que, al igual que Dios ha hecho todas las partes del cuerpo humano esenciales para la salud integral, vivir como "el cuerpo de Cristo" requiere que cada miembro sea reconocido como necesario para el bien de todos. Por último, en el Evangelio de Lucas, Jesús afirma que el Espíritu lo envía a aliviar el sufrimiento humano. Como Esdras, quien está leyendo de un rollo, proclamando la "ley" de misericordia de Dios a los necesitados.

Prayer During Corona Virus

Holy Virgin of Guadalupe,
Queen of the Angels and Mother of the Americas. We fly to you today as your beloved children. We ask you to intercede for us with your Son, as you did at the wedding in Cana. Pray for us, loving Mother, and gain for our nation and world, and for all our families and loved ones, the protection of your holy angels, that we may be spared the worst of this illness. For those already afflicted, we ask you to obtain the grace of healing and deliverance. Hear the cries of those who are vulnerable and fearful, wipe away their tears and help them to trust. In this time of trial and testing, teach all of us in the Church to love one another and to be patient and kind. Help us to bring the peace of Jesus to our land and to our hearts. We come to you with confidence, knowing that you truly are our compassionate mother, health of the sick and cause of our joy. Shelter us under the mantle of your protection, keep us in the embrace of your arms, help us always to know the love of your Son, Jesus. Amen.

BLESSING OF CANDLES

Wednesday, February 2, is the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord. It is an ancient tradition for candles to be blessed on this day as we celebrate the coming of Christ, the Light of the World. Please bring your candles to be blessed at the end of the 7:00 PM Mass.

- ♦ El Miércoles 2 de febrero, es la Fiesta de la Presentación del Señor. Es una antigua tradición bendecir velas en este día mientras celebramos la venida de Cristo, la Luz del Mundo. Por favor traiga sus velas para ser bendecidas al final de la Misa de las 7:00 PM.

Flowers for the Altar

The Altar Flowers, week by week, are a welcome offering to our worship. Flowers are alive. They are of God's creation. They are a fragrant offering to the God who created them. They are a symbol of new life in Christ. For all of these reasons, we give thanks to everyone who is moved to give flowers on a particular weekend/Holy Days of Obligation. People have given flowers in thanksgiving to God for a family member's birthday, wedding anniversary, or other blessing. They are also given in memory of a departed loved one or friend.

*The times that altar flowers are not purchased is during Lent, Palm Sunday, Easter Day, Advent and Christmas.

- ♦ Las flores del Altar, semana a semana, son una ofrenda de bienvenida para nuestra adoración. Las flores están vivas. Son de la creación de Dios. Son una ofrenda fragante para el Dios que los creo. Son un símbolo de nueva vida en Cristo. Por todas estas razones, damos las gracias a todos los que se mueven para regalar flores en un fin de semana particular/Días Santos de Obligation. La gente ha dado flores en agradecimiento a Dios por el cumpleaños de un miembro de la familia, aniversario de bodas u otra bendición. También se dan en memoria de un ser querido o amigo fallecido.
- ♦ Los horarios en que no se compran flores del altar son durante la Cuaresma, el domingo de Ramos, el día de Pascua, el Adviento y la Navidad.

- If you have a young child that needs supervision, that child may sit with one of the adults.
